Pentecost Sunday is June 5 Red is the liturgical color associated with the Holy Spirit. It recalls the red in the tongues of flames in which the Holy Spirit descended upon the believers. You are invited to wear red clothing to worship on June 5 and to follow the tradition of donating red geraniums which will be planted later in our flower beds to add color and beauty to our church lawn. In the spirit of Pentecost, please bring in geraniums on May 29 or June 5 and set them on the designated table in the upper lobby. Thank you!
